

Investment Analyst, NREP

Deadline: 22-02-2021

Contact person: Ilkka Salminen +358503417441

Job area: Investments

Position type: Full time

Are you interested in pursuing a career in private equity? NREP is a leading pan-Nordic Private Equity Real Estate firm combining focused investment strategies and active asset management to achieve superior risk-adjusted returns. Our +300 professionals across the Nordics have more than EUR 7 billion assets under management.

NREP was founded in 2005. We invest across all real estate segments in all Nordic countries from our offices in Helsinki, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Oslo, Luxembourg, and London. We are constantly challenging the status quo of the industry by developing new real estate products and sustainability solutions to enrich people's lives. NREP has been ranked as the most consistently outperforming real estate investment manager globally several times. Here is your chance to join a successful pioneer company and grow to be a true private equity professional with us.

The position

NREP is currently looking for 1-2 Investment Analysts to a full-time, permanent position to join our team in Helsinki. As an investment analyst you will be working with the Finnish investment team in sourcing and evaluating new investments and divestments as well as developing new business opportunities for NREP. Your tasks include preparing industry and market analyses, doing financial modelling and preparing materials to support investment decisions. You will also participate in due diligence, bank financing and negotiation processes and be involved in various projects related to the existing portfolio. Starting date is flexible, with preference by August 2021.

What can we offer you?

You will be working closely together with our experienced investment professionals, whose typical background is in top-tier management consulting or investment banking. You are encouraged and expected to take responsibility from day one in scanning and executing investments, with active support from more senior colleagues. At NREP, we are entrepreneurial and have great pride and ambition in what we do. The position will give you the opportunity to become part of a fast-growing company with pan-Nordic career opportunities and to grow to become a true private equity professional.

Qualifications

We are looking for motivated, fun colleagues who are both business-minded and diligent. You have recently completed or are about to complete your university studies, with a focus in business, finance, real estate, investment management or quantitative studies. You have a great academic record and potentially some relevant work experience from private equity, investment management, investment banking, management consulting, real estate or similar.

You ensure the quality of our investment process through your own professionalism. You have strong analytical skills and enjoy solving tough problems. You have good communication skills and have shown ability to successfully interact with different types of people. Fluent written and spoken English and strong experience with Excel and PowerPoint are further requirements.

Wish to apply?

Please submit your application including a single-page cover letter, CV and university grade transcript via the apply-link latest 22nd of February and we will get back to you soon. We are happy to tell you more – if you have any questions please reach out to Ilkka Salminen, +358 50341 7441.
