We offer:

- Unique vantage point to interesting international transactions
- Supportive and experienced team to foster your development
- Suitable level of challenges to support your growth
- Relaxed and zero-hierarchy work environment where everyone has both the responsibility and freedom to influence
- Opportunity to network with major private equity firms, institutional investors, and other real estate investors and financiers
- Beautiful office in a central Helsinki location
- Motivating and competitive compensation model, along with exercise benefits and comprehensive health insurance

We expect:

- Master's Degree or final stage studies in, e.g. real estate economics, finance, or accounting
- Genuine interest in the real estate investment sector
- Proactivity and eagerness to learn
- Excellent social skills and the ability to present key information convincingly
- Proficiency in Excel and PowerPoint
- Fluency in Finnish and English

In addition, we value:

- Previous work experience in the real estate or finance sectors
- Proficiency in Swedish
