

Senior Associates/Managers to Deals Real Estate team PwC Suomi

We are looking for Senior Associates and Managers to join our Real Estate Transaction Services team within our Advisory Deals unit.

Our Real Estate Transaction Services team specialises in financial due diligence and related services. Our clients are well known local and international private equity customers, investors, institutions and corporations. We help buyers and sellers with residential, healthcare, office portfolios, retail, logistics and other transactions. As a real estate transaction services specialist you will collaborate with others in related deal areas like valuation, tax, and consulting work.

You will be responsible for project team work and client relationship management in varying circumstances and challenges. In addition to general team management tasks, you are willing to build a strong network and have an opportunity to travel to (inter)national real estate conferences or attend webinars alternatively. As a team, you will analyse target companies' historical trading activities, assets and liabilities, cash flows and business plans.

We encourage you to apply when you feel comfortable with the profile below. Other relevant experience is welcome.

- Have enthusiasm for working within Real Estate Advisory.
- a M.Sc. in Business/Economics (for ex. Real Estate Economics, Accounting, Finance, Built Environment).
- From a Senior Associate we expect at (the very) minimum two years or more and from a Manager at (the very) minimum four years or more of relevant work, project management experience and knowledge from real estate (e.g. real estate transactions, audit, private equity, investment management).
- Fluency in professional English and Finnish is essential.
- Be a dedicated team player with excellent communication and client-facing skills.
- Be an analytical and structured problem-solver.
- Have good PowerPoint and Excel skills. The ability to use Power BI, Alteryx, Tableau or other data analytics and visualisation tools is an advantage.

We offer you a place in an energetic team of professionals with varying backgrounds and experience. The team around you as well as our global network provide opportunities to learn, possibilities for personal growth and international assignments. We emphasize well-being at work and offer broad occupational healthcare services and many different recreational activities. We enjoy working together and to celebrate milestones.

Do you want to join our real estate team?

Please send your application and CV in English by 7th March 2021.
